

CITRUS THEATRE COMPANY 2009

Love Letters

By A. R. Gurney
Directed by Dean Hess

July 9, 10, 11, 2009 at 8PM
July 12, 2009 at 2PM

Simply by reading a lifetime of correspondence aloud, LOVE LETTERS traces the bittersweet relationship of staid, dutiful lawyer Andrew Makepeace Ladd II and the lively, unstable artist Melissa Gardner. Nearly 50 years of their lives unfolds from what is written – and what is left unsaid – in their letters. Pulitzer-prize nominated LOVE LETTERS is probably A.R. Gurney's best known and best loved play, and has been a vehicle for many famous couples such as Paul Newman and Joanne Woodward.

Join Citrus' own Cherie Brown and Doug Goetz (stars of last year's "Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf?") in this lovely, compelling production of two lives intertwined through their letters.

You Can't Take It With You

By Moss Hart and George S. Kaufman
Directed by Neil H. Weiss

July 17, 18, 23, 24, 25, 2009 at 8PM
July 19, 26, 2009 at 2PM

Meet the Sycamore family, a zany bunch of free-spirited artists and oddball entrepreneurs. When daughter Alice announces her new boyfriend's rich, conservative parents are coming to dinner, Alice's family agrees to act "normal." But when the prospective in-laws show up on the wrong night...all bets are off.

An Academy-award winning film, YOU CAN'T TAKE IT WITH YOU is also considered one of the most popular and successful plays of modern times.
